PERFORMS AN OPERATION.

We pause to applaud the success that attended an operation performed in Bellefontaine, Ohio, by a layman—a plain, ordinary freeman, who had never even opened or heard of a book of surgery.

They suspected him of appendicitis. Three surgeons were in attendance when he was administered an anesthetic, ready to knife him of his veriform keepsake. The ether wrought him up to the point of emulsion, and, springing from the operating table, he seized a weapon, kept the surgeons long at bay, and at length felled one of them to the ground.

"The operation was completely successful." There is a surgeon less, an appendix more. The diffusion of surgical knowledge among the masses will lead to some wonderful results. That a neophyte should achieve such remarkable results at the first operation must inspire all to emulous endeavor.—Los Angeles Express.

Now that Heney and Rogers, counsel in the Calhoun case, have agreed to fight, why not offer a purse and have the match pulled off in Tonopah. As a drawing card it would beat the Jeffries-Johnson scrap.

Did we hear somebody mention that things were somewhat quiet in this burg. Four fights was the record for yesterday and it wasn't a nice day at that.

Hats more than eighteen inches wide may be tabooed in Illinois. How funny it will look to see such dinky little things!

RETURN MATCH FOR GOTCH AND HACKENSCHMIDT

(Special to the Bonanza.)

SEATTLE (Wash.), April 27.—Sixty per cent of the gate, with a guarantee that it will be no less than $15,000 is the gist of an offer that has gone forward to Frank Gotch and George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," for a wrestling bout for the championship, to be pulled off in Seattle during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

The offer is made by the management of the Arena, one of the big attractions on the exposition "Pay Streak," behind which is John Cort, the theatrical magnate. Cort has erected on the "Pay Streak" a huge enclosed arena, with a seating capacity of 5000. In it throughout the fair John L. Sullivan, Jake Kilrain and other old-time mittmen, including Charley Mitchell, will perform, and a series of bouts between the topnotchers of the present day will be brought off. It is planned to include wrestling matches and the Cort management is now trying to sign with such men as Gotch, Hackenschmidt, Dr. Koller and the other good one. In making an offer for the Gotch-Hackenschmidt bout, the Cort people are entering into active competition with the Australian outfit, which has offered a guarantee gate of $25,000 for the same match.

Fifty per cent of the picture privileges goes with the Seattle offer and also a fairly generous expense and training account.

If the arena offer is accepted the principals will be required to put up a forfeit.

EARLY MORNING SCRAPPERS PAY A SMALL FINE

PARTICIPANTS IN FISTIC BATTLE ARE FINED $1 AND COSTS.

J. S. Pervere and T. J. McMahon indulged in a forcible argument yesterday morning that resulted in Pervere receiving a discolored optic. The witnesses of the affair, however, state that the honors were evenly divided at the time the mixers were separated. Both men were halted before Judge Atkinson, where they were fined $1 and costs, the latter amounting to $23.50, for disturbing the peace.

COLORED MAN NARROWLY ESCAPES BEING SHOT

S. J. STEWART FIRES FIVE SHOTS AT PORTER BUT TAKES POOR AIM.

Considerable excitement was caused yesterday by the report of a shooting scrape at the Big Casino. The first rumor stated that the floor was covered with dead and dying, but later the victims narrowed down to one single porter, and finally on investigation it was found that no one was injured.

The trouble arose over the removal of a trunk that S. J. Stewart, the expressman, called for, having been sent by a former roomer of that place. He was met by William Spencer, the colored porter, who had informed him that he had received orders to allow no baggage to be removed without the consent of the management. This statement did not please Stewart and he landed a right swing on Spencer's eye, flooring him. Spencer arose, and making his way to the front barroom of the house informed the day manager and also several others of the trouble. The men went to the dance room where Stewart was standing and after several minutes spent in discussing the trunk, which was being held for room rent, were about to return to the front of the house when Stewart drawing his revolver, a .45 calibre, shot in the floor, narrowly missing two of the men. The shot ricocheted and lodged in the bar about two feet from the base.

At the first shot the inmates of the room started for the various exits. Spencer made a dash for the band stand and Stewart followed. A second shot was fired just about as Spencer was preparing to jump on the stand and the third was discharged as he made the leap. The second shot went somewhat wild and struck the wall to the left of the stand, but the third one struck several inches from where Spencer was lying. The colored man evidently heard the bullet strike for the yell he let out led the occupants of the front bar to believe that he had been killed. Hastily arising to his feet he made a break for the doorway, several feet away, and as he disappeared Stewart let loose with two more shots, both striking a little to the left of the doorway.

Stewart then left and was driving up the street when he was arrested by Chief Malley, who escorted him to the justice court where he was released on $500 cash bond which was furnished by Joe Kenniston, of the Tonopah Club.

Spencer has been an employee of the Casino for the last three years and is regarded by the managers of that place as an honest and industrious worker. When a Bonanza representative visited the scene he was still somewhat nervous and his teeth would occasionally indulge in a chatter. He was found by a searching party concealed under a bath tub in the rear of the building and it was some little time before he could be coaxed to come out.

Stewart will be tried in the justice court today.
